It did not stop at so small a station except when there was somebody to get off or to get on; and so long a blast meant that someone was coming. Sam and I ran down the avenue of elms to see who it was. Sam was my slave philosopher, and friend. I was ten years old and Sam said that he was fourteen. There was constant talk about the war. Many men of the neighbourhood had gone away somewhere - that was certain; but Sam and I had a theory that the war was only a story. We had been fooled about old granny Thomas s bringing the baby, and long ago we had been fooled also about Santa Claus.
