

Johann Albrecht Bengel: Briefwechsel: Briefe 1723-1731 (Hardback)

By -

Vandenhoeck Rupprecht, Germany, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 248 x 176 mm. Language: German Brand New Book. English summary: The Wuerttemberg theologian Johann Albrecht Bengel (1687-1752) has had a long-lasting influence in the history of the church and theology. His contributions to New Testament textual criticism, his expositions of the biblical text, his combination of scholarly competence with edifying observations, such as we find in his Gnomon, have left their mark on generations of theologians and pastors. As part of this legacy we must also count Bengel s unsuccessful attempt to calculate the dates in redemption history. This edition of Bengel s correspondence, comprising several volumes, offers for the first time the entirety of the extant material (more than 3,100 letters to and from Bengel). Texts important for Bengel s biography, theology, educational theory or pastoral counseling are printed complete; others appear as detailed summaries of content. Passages and terms in foreign languages are translated into German. The textual apparatus provides an overview of the transmissional history of each letter; the expositional apparatus offers information on persons, events and book titles mentioned. Each volume has indices of persons, places and biblical passages. The first volume contained correspondence from the early...
