The Crow--I can t have anything to do with such an old rogue!--the Crow, I am certain, hates Kapchack, but he dares not say so. Now I am so old, and they think me so stupid and deaf that people say a good deal before me, never imagining that I take any notice. And when I have been out of a dewy evening, I have distinctly heard the Crow grumbling about Kapchack. The Crow thinks he is quite as clever as Kapchack, and would make quite as good a king. Nor is the Rat satisfied, nor the Weasel, nor the Hawk. I am sure they are not, but they cannot do anything alone, and they are so suspicious of each other they cannot agree. So that though they are dissatisfied, they can do nothing. I...
