Alas! how often, through wilful ignorance, do they fail to distinguish the three divine Persons, confounding the Holy Ghost with the Father and the Son! Neither is it difficult to believe the doctrine of the Holy Ghost; for there are many things in this world, even in natural science, which we cannot comprehend, and yet believe. In order to believe religious truths, one must have a childlike, simple mind, and must pray diligently. Only those that are proud, and negligent in prayer, become unbelievers. Apart from the mystery of his essence, - what the Catholic Church teaches with regard to the Holy Ghost, is quite intelligible. What that divine Spirit does, operates, effects, is best known from the names and perfections which are attributed to him. For instance, the name of Creator...
