Navy and Marine Corps: Headquarters United States Marine Corps, 1912 1. Officers in authority shall assure themselves that all officers and enlisted men serving under them conform strictly to these uniform regulations. Particular attention is directed to the questions concerning uniform required to be answered in making out reports on the fitness of officers. 2. Officers shall set an example of neatness and strict conformity to regulations in uniforms and equipment. Enlisted men must be neat and trim in their persons and dress on all occasions. 3. Every person belonging to the Navy or Marine Corps is strictly forbidden to wear any dress or decoration other than that to which his grade or the law entitles him. No decoration received from a foreign Government, nor any other decoration or badge not specifically prescribed or authorized by these regulations, shall be worn exposed by any officer or enlisted man. 4. Officers and enlisted men on duty shall at all times wear the uniform of then respective grades, as prescribed herein or by the senior officer present, except as otherwise provided in these regulations. 5. Officers serving on board torpedo vessels and submarines are not required to wear or carry with them other uniforms than service dress or white service dress. 6. Officers serving under acting commissions in time of war or for other special purposes, acting assistant surgeons appointed for three years service in the Navy, and acting assistant dental surgeons are required to provide themselves only with the articles of uniform prescribed for service dress and white service dress. 7....
