Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 218 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. This premium quality volume includes the complete text of three of H. G. Wells science fiction classics -- The Time Machine, The Invisible Man and The Island of Dr. Moreau -- selected for this collection because of their enduring influence on the science fiction genre. This freshly edited and newly typeset edition features a large 7.44x9.69 page size and is printed on heavyweight bright white paper with a fully laminated cover featuring an original full color design. Also included in this volume are page headers and an introductory biographical sketch discussing Wells life, work and continuing literary significance. The three tales included in this volume share the common theme of humanity's efforts, with varying success, to advance and control science, and the effect of the individual scientist on the outcome, as well as the impact of scientific discovery on the individual scientist. A common theme in the science fiction genre, these tales by Wells represent three of the earliest and most influential such stories. A matching volume, The Best of H. G. Wells, Volume I: The War of the Worlds, The First Men in the Moon ISBN-13: 978-1494767778, ISBN-10: 1494767775, is also available. Herbert George Wells (1866-1946), was born to shopkeepers who had previously been employed as domestic servants. When an injury ended his father's income as a professional cricketer, Wells' parents, on the brink of poverty, apprenticed him to a draper, but he was dismissed after a short time and subsequently became a pupil-teacher in a system where older students helped teach younger students. Despite having little formal education, Wells, a voracious reader, won a scholarship to the Normal School of Science in London where he completed courses...
