Gilman, chairman of the committee, presiding. Chairman Gilman. The Committee on International Relations will come to order. Two years ago this week, 20,000 American troops left their homes for Haiti to restore constitutional order and to throw out a regime that was murdering its political opponents. Since then the Clinton administration has spent more than $2 billion to support a government that has tolerated thugs who murder its political opponents. I supported the resolution of the constitutional order in Haiti. That support was betrayed by the Administration when it kept Congress in the dark about political murders by the very government we returned to power. Many of those murders were committed in 1995, while our troops were still in Haiti as peacekeepers. Our government has information linking these killings to members of Haiti s Presidential Security Unit, which was trained by our own government. One of the most shocking murders was the March 28, 1995 shooting in broad daylight of Mirielle Bertin, a prominent opponent of then President Jean-Bertrand Aristide. Two dozen FBI agents were deployed to Haiti to help investigate that shooting, but by August 1995, our embassy had concluded that the Aristide Government was stonewalling the FBI. Even as the FBI was packing up to leave Haiti in frustration, an Administration official told our Western Hemisphere Subcommittee of this committee on October 12th...
