Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Little Light on a Dark Subject It is high time, now that we have had our experience, that it should be sorted and stored away for future use. It avails little that occasional squibs, more or less suspected of personalities, make their appearance; they cast at most but a moments glare upon the difficulties, and start inquiries which they fail to satisfy. Concerning this very Fish Market business, a witty writer in the Mercury last fall, in demanding for the Public some information about Estimates, Plans, Specifications, Extras, and Contracts, very sensibly expressed his utter despair of ever obtaining it; Othello s handkerchief was not more hard to find, he supposed, than was to be this information. And his forebodings have been fulfilled: for with all their reporting the committees failed to furnish the two all-important contracts, because, they say, not furnished them; they describe the estimate as first $10, 000 - then $15, 000 - then $41, 900 - then extras are to swell it up to and above $50, 000 - and...
