Its broad verandas, massive fluted columns and airy rooms all marked it an ante-bellum mansion. A certain bright April day, quivering in the violet veil of the dawn, suddenly sent a stream of soft, silvery light through the wide east windows. Without, in highway, byway, orchard and open, numerous feathered songsters trilled and piped a merry matinee. The smell of new-turned earth and bursting blossom, mingled with the delicate and delightful aroma of long-leaf pines, was in the air. Along the broad river meadows ragged gray wisps of mist rose, and, curling smoke-like toward the turquoise sky, left for the gaze a splendid stretch of dew-washed emerald, flecked here and there with snowy sheep.
