Not illustrated. 1874 Excerpt: . . . every year--and each of them is a sin against God. His friend begged him to stop: he could not bear to think of that. Remember that when once a word is spoken, it cannot be called back again. You may think it a little thing, but nothing is little in Gods sight. It is not fine to swear, nor clever, nor manly; and God will not hold it guiltless. II. What We ARE To Do. What does the Catechism say this Commandment teaches us Yes, to honour Gods Name, and His Word. Gods Name means everything that belongs to Him. And we must honour Gods Name. You know the verse: --Words that are holy Must be said slowly. And what does Solomon say about it (Eccles. v. 2.) Yes, whenever we use the Name of God, it should be carefully, solemnly, reverently. What does the...
